Single 'Judgement Day' Played on BBC Introducing in the West

IMPERATIVE PR: 'Cosmic Ninja are pushing boundaries with their unique and fresh blend of rock electronica. The band is on a genre bending mission, fusing big riffs, bigger choruses, dance breaks and synth sounds into an exciting sonic elixir, Cosmic Ninja play without restraints, boundaries or borders. With their alternative, electronic rock they promise to give you a live show that has a massive sound and a visual spectacle that will be difficult to keep still to. Be prepared to rock, dance and be entranced.'

Inspired by acts such as Pendulum, Muse, The Prodigy and Chvrches, their versatile catalogue of material works well on any alternative, popular rock and live electronic/dance line ups.
